K

On this fifteenth day of the month of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty.

Before me Henry Howard the undersigned Notary Public duly commissioned and sworn in and for that part of the Dominion of Canada at present constituting the Province of Quebec, residing in the district of Terrebonne.

Personally came and appeared William Harrington, of the parish of St. Andrews, in the district of Terrebonne, Esquire,

Who did and doth hereby bargain, sell, assign, transfer and make over with promise of warranty against all alienations and other hindrances whatsoever unto Amedée Crevier, of the city of Montreal, in the district of Montreal wood-merchant, here ~~to~~ present and accepting for himself, his heirs and assigns. to wit:

The Coupe de bois of all the timber of every kind, nature, quality or description whatsoever, now actually growing in and upon the following described parcels of land the fonds whereof has been this day sold by said vendor unto François Xavier St. Denis, by deed

Those certain tracts and parcels of land and premises situate and lying in the Seigniory and County of Argenteuil, in the Province of Quebec, known and described, First, as that part of the Domain of said Seigniory situated on the west side of the North River, comprising all the land between the North and Ottawa rivers and extending to the line separating the said Domain from the land hereinafter secondly described, containing such quantity of land as may be found within the boundaries aforesaid. Secondly, a land lying and situate at the foot of the Long Sault in the Seigniory of Argenteuil in the parish of Saudreau, district of Terrebonne, known and distinguished as forming part of the Lots of land numbers eighteen and nineteen, containing six arpents in front on the Rivière du Nord by which it is bounded in front, to the depth of six arpents where the said land is reduced to two arpents in breadth to the River Ottawa where it is bounded in rear; without warranty of measurement; bounded on one side towards the south by the Seigniorial Domain hereinabove described, on the other side, as well on the side as on the rear partly by Jean Baptiste

Baptiste Dorion and partly by Estate Robert Simpson, with all which the said Purchaser declares to have a perfect knowledge having seen and viewed the same previous hereto and therewith is content and satisfied, without any reservation of any part or portion of the aforesaid hereby bargained and sold timber on the part of the said Vendor.

To have, hold, use and enjoy the said hereby bargained and sold timber with the rights, members and appurtenances unto the said Purchaser, his heirs and assigns, by virtue of these presents, and to make, effect and complete the said Coupe within three years from this date it being expressly understood that all timber remaining standing after that time shall remain to said François Xavier St Denis and be considered part and parcel of the fonds thereof, without any recourse whatsoever on the part of said Purchaser. And the said Purchaser may in the cutting and removing of said timber have full and sufficient liberty of passage, road-way, and right of way for his workmen, horses and Carriages and other Conveyances over and across the said parcels of land for the removal of said timber, and generally have and enjoy all other liberties and privileges whatsoever on the premises which are customary and which will be necessary for such removal, but without causing unnecessary damage to the land or growing crops of the owners of said land.

The present Sale is so made in manner aforesaid and for and in consideration of the price and sum of Three thousand five hundred dollars, currency, which the said purchaser binds and obliges himself to pay to said Vendor or legal representatives as follows, to wit: three thousand dollars thereof on or before the first day of August now next (1881) and the balance on the first day of January following, with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent per annum, to be computed from and after the eleventh day of November last past, till final Payment.

It is however expressly stipulated notwithstanding this delay of Payment, that the said Purchaser shall have no right to remove any part or portion of the timber so to be cut, from and off the said land without the actual the actual payment to the said Vendor in advance & at the rate of one dollar per cord, on account of the price of sale of said timber; failing which the said timber so cut shall and may be retained by special privilege by the said vendor as though no actual delivery had been made, and he may exercise all rights of seizure or otherwise that may be necessary in the premises to secure the payment of the said consideration money at the rate and in the proportion aforesaid prior to the removal of said timber.

For the execution hereof the appearants have elected domicile at their places of abode above mentioned.

Done and passed at the Parish of St Andrews, in the District of Terrebonne, in the office of A. Howard, the undersigned notary, on the day, month, and year first before written under the number five thousand two hundred and seventy nine. And the parties hereto have signed these presents with and in presence of me the said Notary after being duly read.

Copy of Agreement with C Albright. damage by over flow of water
15th June 1865

Form. of agreement between the Executors of the late Colo. Christopher C Johnson and Charles Albright of the Seigniory of Argenteuil, Yeoman witnesseth that whereas there is indebted to the said Executors a large amount for arrears of Cens et rentes due on the farms formerly owned by Duncan Dewar & Colin Dewar, recently purchased by the said Ch. Albright, namely Lot Nr. twenty Nine, thirty, & thirty One East side North River, and whereas on the other hand the said Duncan Dewar & Colin Dewar have claimed damages for the overflow from the erection of the dam belonging to the Seignior, it has been agreed by the undersigned in order to arrange amicably the differences between them, that the Seignior shall give up all claims for arrears upon the said farms till the 10th Nov. last. and on the other hand that the said Ch. Albright for himself & the said Duncan Dewar & Colin Dewar, shall abandon all claims for damages from overflow by Waters of the said farms up till the X said 10th November last. both parties mutually releasing & discharging one another from all past claims arising from the causes stated

And whereas it appears that since the erection of the present dam, the overflow has increased & that the said Charles Albright is justly entitled to further compensation, it is agreed that the Seignior shall allow him yearly the sum of seven dollars & ten cents in addition to the annual rents of twelve dollars & ninety cents of Cens et rentes due on the said farms the first payment to be due the ninth Nov. next, & to continue so long as the dam remains in the same condition, It is however agreed that should the said dam be taken away, lowered or heightened so as to remove diminish or increase the overflow of Water on the said farms, either of the parties hereto may require a new arrangement to be entered into
