THE FIELD HOUSE AND BAND

Welcome, Varsity!

OTWITHSTANDING the fact that Varsity, as result of last week's defeat is definitely out of the championship race, the Blue clad warriors can be counted upon to put up a great battle. Smarting from the sting of their last two defeats, they are determined to chalk up a win at the expense of McGill or perish in the attempt.

The Shagmen, however, will go into today's battle knowing that they must live up to the positive assertion of their supporters that "This is McGill's year!" With this encouraging shibboleth ringing in their ears, it will not be surprising to see the old Red team emerge from the struggle on the long end of the score.

Although Varsity's championship hopes have gone a-glimmering, today's game between the gridiron experts of Canada's two leading Universities will be interesting if for no other reason than the fact that it is representative of all that is best in Intercollegiate sport. On your mark, Red and Blue!

JACK LITTLE

Captain and star running half of the Red team. Jack has had an enforced rest of two weeks owing to an injury to his trick knee. Today, however, he is fit and ready to go. Many experts consider the McGill Pilot to be the best all-round back division man in the Intercollegiate. Lacking any flashiness, he has nevertheless all the attributes which go to make up an ideal half-back. Hats off to Captain Jack Little!

RALPH ST. GERMAIN

Now playing at the top of his form, St. Germain will be closely watched today by the opposing wings. His end runs this season have been a revelation to the football public. May his shadow never grow less.

"CURLY" TAYLOR

Like Jack Little, this great outside wing has been a casualty for the past two weeks, but returns to the fold today. All available adjectives have been utilized to describe "Curly," but believe it or not, he's good.

SIDELIGHTS on the VARSITY PLAYERS

HARRISON.—Flying wing. This boy, a native of Bearcatville, has been an Eiffel Tower of strength to the Blue all season. Hits the line like goodness, gracious Agnes, and can tackle like O-Billy-be-damn.

TRIMBLE.—Half-back and the Big Boss of the show. End-running is this lad's plate of asparagus, and he doesn't need any book of etiquette to tell him how to handle it. Playing his fourth season with Varsity.

TRAYNOR.—Half-back who can run, kick and tackle with equal sangfroid. An all-round man in every, if not all respects.

SINCLAIR.—The third man behind the gun in Varsity's back-yard. He will be called upon to do most of the kicking today, his right foot being one of the most expensively educated in the business.

DUNDAS.—Playing his third year with the Toronto Institute of higher education, this big 190 pound plunger is one of the most effective men on the team. Learned the rudiments at Oakwood Collegiate.

CARRICK.—Inside who is knockin' 'em for a row of Peruvian floor-mops. And how do you do! Weighs 179 pounds and uses every one of them to excellent advantage.

KEITH.—Snap. This husky bevo-hound sure knows the meaning of the word accurate. If anybody wakes you up in the middle of the night to inquire, Keithy has courage, ambition and weight.

BEAN.—Leaving all jokes about Boston aside, this boy is far from baked when it comes to getting down the prairie. His tackling in the Queen's--Varsity five o'clock tea stood out like a sore thumb.

DALY.—At outside, old "Buzz" has been performing in a manner that calls for praise of the cream-puff variety. When he goes after a man, he positively refuses to take "no" for an answer.

MORGAN.—When this burly bozo prances forth into the bright glare of publicity today, he will get a great hand from the hoi poloi. His work last year was all to the chocolate caramel, and according to reports emanating from Ontario's chief hay centre, the lad is still in the vicinity.

SNYDER.—Quarter-back who was shifted from middle wing, the shift being a judicious one. Formerly played in the O.R.F.U. A brainy quarter who should get time and-a-half for over-time.

ST. GERMAIN.—Readers of this great family journal will be interested to learn that Ralph is an expert with the harpoon. Last year, he bagged six whales in as many days off the Labrador Coast. He also attends the Sunday night Sings at Strathcona Hall.

TREMAIN.—Aside from his kicking proclivities, Ken's chief interest lies in collecting old newspapers. Anybody having a "Star," "Herald," "Gazette" or "La Presse" that they don't need are requested to send it in to Ken, care of this journal.

LITTLEFIELD.—When not engaged in bucking the line, Lit's energies are devoted to the advancement of the Society for the Suppression of Profanity, of which he is Corresponding Secretary.

TAYLOR.—In his spare time, "Curly" amuses himself by writing articles for the more learned Scientific Reviews. His monograph entitled, "The Extinction of the Boll-Weevil" caused quite a stir in shipping circles recently.

LITTLE.—Off the gridiron, Jack is chiefly concerned with music in all its phases. His rendition of "O Sole Mio" on the B flat Oboe is said to have turned a prominent bootlegger into a milkman for life.

BAZIN.—"Bruds" is fast making a name for himself in the Auto Accessories game. He is also a poet of no mean order, his "Ode to a Nova Scotia Sardine" having won the Grand Prix of the Pointe Aux Trembles Poetry Society.

SPIERS.—Bruce's hobby is gardening, on which subject he is regarded with respect. Last year he produced an Italian Crocus of rare beauty from an over-ripe tomato, the achievement calling forth praise from many noted Horticulturists, including the late King Menelik of Abyssinia.

McTEER.—Has spent several years working on a perpetual motion machine which does 20 miles to the gallon. Mac also plays the Zither.

MILLEN.—Devotes his evenings to looking after his collection of African Orang Outangs which feed out of his hand. One of these animals is said to speak Arabic quite fluently.

SHARPE.—Lou's pet hobby is ventriloquism. He is also an explorer of note. His lecture, "My Four Years Among the Ice Floes of Brazil" (silver collection), having netted him a considerable fortune.

MUNROE.—Mun's specialty is trick bicycle riding. Last year, he toured the English 'Alls, having a run of eight weeks at the Empire Theatre, 'Amstead 'Eath.

KRITZWISER.—Another inventive genius. His device for making button holes has set the clothing trade by the ears.

HEENAN.—The higher forms of spiritualism claim Heenan's spare moments. He has also written several novels, most of which have been suppressed by the Boston Watch and Ward Society.

Varsity Flag Presentation

Before the kick-off Dr. R. A. Ross, on behalf of the University of Toronto Alumni Society in Montreal, will present to Sir Arthur Currie, representing the McGill Athletic Board, a flag emblazoned with the arms of the University of Toronto. It is the intention to fly this flag, which is of striking beauty, on all occasions on which University of Toronto and McGill meet in athletic contests at the Stadium.

FRANK ("SHAG") SHAUGHNESSY

Famous McGill Coach who originated the slogan, "This is McGill's Year!" and as everybody knows, when "Shag" makes a statement, it's always correct. In his student days, the Red and White Mentor was Captain and Star of the 1904 Notre Dame University Eleven. He has been coaching McGill football squads since 1912, beyond a doubt, Canada's greatest Coach.

ATTENTION!

MONDAY'S game with our traditional rivals M.A.A.A. here at the Stadium will be of special significance to all McGill men, past and present. For on that day a trophy dedicated to the memory of the M.A.A.A. and McGill football players who were killed in the Great War will be presented for competition between the two teams.

The trophy, which is a replica of the St. Julien War Memorial, is to be known as "The Memorial Trophy" and will go each year to the team winning the annual Thanksgiving Day game. It will be engraved with the names of the fallen and will be a fitting tribute to the football heroes of the past who were so prompt in answering their country's call.
