VISITORS AT MCGILL

The University of Sydney.

Dec^r 14th 1919

My dear Adams,

I have just been taking the liberty of giving a distinguished graduate of this University - C. S. Tilley a letter of introduction to you, which he will no doubt present to you later on. He is just starting for Cambridge University on a travelling Scholarship. He is working specially at the Petrology and Sequence of the Australian Pre-Cambrian rocks, and has been extremely interested in your papers dealing 2 / with that subject.

I should be most grateful to you for any help and guidance you may give to Tilley in his researches.

Next May I say what a very great pleasure it was to meet you again and meet you in khaki at the Geological Society dinner in London this year.

I enjoyed every word of your speech and most cordially stand by all you said about the part that Government has played in this war in bringing

13

The Overseas Dominions
to the help of the Mother Country. As I was working a good deal at Vimy Ridge when the Canadians were holding the line there prior to their historic victory on April 9th - 12th of 1917, one had some opportunity of judging of the physique and spirit of the men, fine - both!

Being half Canadian (my mother came from Quebec) one thrilled with pride in these men, and felt it a very great privilege to be in their company.

I was very sorry not to have

4/ had the pleasure of meeting you again before I had to return to Australia.

memor
There were many things I would have loved to have talked over with you, and here is the "And Lang Lyne" of our Mexican experiences!

The President

Montreal

Dear Sir,

May I ask that on Tuesday the 20th or Wednesday the 21st you will allow me a fairly long interview and arrange that I may meet some of the chief representatives of your faculties, especially perhaps in Engineering? My engagements here may prevent my leaving on Monday night and I apologise for the independence of my request.

I am on the teaching staff of Sydney University (Australia), have the rank of Captain in the Australian Imperial Force, have been in charge of the University education of Australian soldiers in Britain, and am returning to Australia via the United States & Canada, by authority of the Minister for Defence, in order to learn from their University systems. I was selected for the Army work by the Australian Universities represented them all. I report confidentially to them & hope in both America to learn much to their advantage, particularly, perhaps, in relation to opportunities for post-graduate study.

I should like also to discuss with you the present position of our British Universities in their efforts towards closer association. I was a member of the Special Committee of the Universities

Bureau to consider the Gregory
Foster - Ramsey Davis report, & consulted President Torg in every matter in which some joint action with Canada was possible.

My intention is to go from Montreal to Toronto & then return to the United States. I am due to leave Vancouver on Feb 18th.
I shall be greatly obliged for any help you can give me in the economical use of my time.

I have been the guest of a number of clubs in this country

I am greatly interested in University clubs as well as student societies.
If you will allow me to see anything typical in those ways
I shall be glad & grateful.

I understand that the Queen's Hotel is not far from the University and I shall try to go there. I have no letters of introduction but ample evidence of authority.

Yours faithfully

Sir : -

I consider it my duty to express to you my sincere thanks for the kind reception you tendered me as well as the other officers of the Hellenic Commission during our visit to McGill University.

Our impressions of the various faculties, their professors, and the scientific equipment with which your University is gifted, I assure you will remain unfading in our memory.

The students of McGill University are fortunate indeed to be initiated in Art and Science under the leadership of you, General, who led the glorious Canadian army to victory.

Allow me, General, to wish you a full accomplishment of all your ambitious plans for "Old McGill", and a bright future for your country, worthy of her deeds both in peace and war.

Yours very truly,

Dear Sir Arthur: -
 Major General Edwards,

Dear Sir Arthur,

It is quite possible that you know more about Talbot House than I do. But Mr. Clayton, who is coming out to Canada ~~to~~ in connection with the ideas which it represents, has asked me to put him in touch with schools and Universities. The organization, largely under Mr. Clayton's inspiration, is certainly doing a big work here, but whether there is room for its extension in Canada, or whether the ground is already occupied, I cannot say. To give a clear statement of the nature of the work, I asked him to write me a letter, which could go along with my^s introductions, and of this combined with other material, I enclose two copies. The Governor General & Lady Byng are interested in Mr. Clayton's work, and possibly they may have already communicated with you about it.

Mr. Clayton has some hope of seeing you on his way through Montreal to Ottawa, so I have taken the liberty of giving him a card of introduction in case he can do this. Under the circumstances
I am sure you will understand.

Nothing, I think, but good, could come of letting Mr. Clayton set in touch with your many people. But of this you will judge.
Do not trouble to answer this.

With every good wish for the New Year,

Yours sincerely,

W.H.

PHILIP REID 47 FLEET ST. EC.4.

Padre P. B. Clayton, M.C., is in Canada from January to March, 1922, visiting old friends of Toc H. and enlisting new ones. His address is c/o The Bank of Montreal, Head Offices.

A letter to Sir George Parkin, K.C.M.G., D.C.L., LL.D.

19th December 1921.

DEAR SIR GEORGE PARKIN,

You have indeed been most kind concerning my visit to Canada, and it is at your suggestion that I now jot down a few points which may accompany your introductions, and present the facts about Toc H. in tabloid form. Those to whom you are writing on our behalf are, as you warned me, desperately busy men, and I therefore give in the barest outline the character of the work on which I hope soon to confer with them.

While it is probably true that most public-spirited men in England, and especially in the School and University world at home here, have already more than an inkling as to its origin and present aims, in Canada hitherto (apart from the Byngs themselves, and some 500 Foundation Members) Toc H. has scarcely begun to move, with the result that it will be best that my explanation should take nothing for granted.

ORIGIN.

Toc H.,* then, is a Movement that has sprung from the work of the old Talbot House in Poperinghe, which was founded in 1915 as a spiritual, social and educational centre for the officers and men of the 6th Imperial Division. The House thus established became widely known, and its membership, as the long years of agony went forward, included a great number of those who served and suffered in the Ypres Salient. The Canadian Expeditionary Force played a great part in the life and work of the House, and there are undoubtedly all over Canada many old friends beyond those with whom we are already in touch, whose allegiance to Toc H. it is part of our programme to recapture.

Toc H., however, is not merely another Ex-Service Club. Its surviving Members saw clearly from the first that to limit the sphere of its operation to those who had known the old House, was simply to produce yet one more backward-looking body, which would share the inevitable fate of all other ex-service organisations in the steady dwindling of its Membership, and the inevitable decay of its ideals.

GROWTH.

Our Foundation Membership, therefore, had before it from the first the ambition not merely to conserve, but to transmit; and the justice and wisdom of this step has been abundantly proved by the extraordinary progress which these last two years in the Old Country have seen accomplished. During these two years its Membership has more than doubled; some 70 Branches have been established; three great Houses in London have been opened; and several provincial Houses are rapidly nearing completion.

PROGRAMME.

The programme of Toc H. may be summed up in the word "After-Care." It is the task of these Houses and Branches to deal with the ex-school boy of all grades at the beginning of his career as a citizen; to offer him not only a welcome alternative to lodgings, but a series of working ideals, both in conduct and outlook, which can resist (and do more than resist) the narrowing and belittling circumstances of a life of loneliness at the bottom of the ladder.

These Houses, therefore, are not merely Hostels, but rather centres of influence of a unique kind. They are held in Trusteeship by a series of groups of resident Membership, representative of the widest possible area of contemporary life. These picked Teams focus an influence which extends far and wide among the Membership as a whole; teaching mutual respect and understanding between the classes as the only alternative to that system of organised class-war which so greatly menaces the Old Country, and is so utterly alien to the mind of our Dead.

The task, however, of the Houses is not merely one of Fellowship, for our War experience plainly taught us that there can be no real Fellowship unless based on the united spirit of service. The Membership of Toc H. is, therefore, pledged to social service of a very great variety, and the Movement is fast becoming the most powerful Agency of its kind in Great Britain for the recruitment from the ages of 17 to 35 of those who will voluntarily undertake tasks of this character.

Toc H. (which even the Purists of Punch and The Times now use unblushingly), is simply T.H., the initial letters of Talbot House "Toc" being signalese for T.

METHOD OF RECRUITMENT.

Our Social Service Department is thus a real civic asset, on which the Headquarters of the Boys Scouts' Association and the various Boys' Brigades increasingly rely for reinforcements. Where is this mass of raw material drawn from? It comes into Toc H. chiefly from the Public, Grammar and Secondary Schools, and also from a widespread net in the commercial and industrial world. Here, again, our work is only in its early stages. We have, however, already strong Branches in 63 of the Senior Schools, and in every ancient and modern University in Great Britain. The task of these Branches is (a) to teach Christian Civics and ideals of Social Service while the boy is still at School, through the agency of a big Panel of voluntary Lecturers, (b) to supply every Summer lists of leaving school-boys, who are referred to our Social Service Correspondent in the neighbourhood to which they go.

On the industrial side we work both through our old Membership and their younger brothers, and also through the Welfare Workers. These vital elements of the younger life of the nation, who otherwise are so liable to grow up in the old country in mutual misunderstanding and even active hostility, are thus brought together in our Houses and Branches, our Sports Teams, Camps, and Pilgrimage Parties to Ypres, in an atmosphere of friendship and goodwill.

HOUSES.

It is the belief of Toc H. that those who did not live to come home would rather see such work go forward among their younger brothers than the unveiling of many monuments to their memory. The Houses themselves are Memorial Houses, instinct with the spirit and example of those to whose memory their Rooms are dedicated. It is our belief and hope that in this way a permanent tradition can be set, which many generations hence our successors will have cause to bless and to renew. The permanence of the work is already in a measure guaranteed by the Endowments which have been received by the Trustees, and while the extraordinary rapidity and expansion has naturally placed a severe strain upon the available finances, each House (which costs approximately £2,000 to open and to furnish) becomes automatically self-supporting.

FINANCE.

In regard to the financial aspect of my time in Canada, it is, of course, necessary for me to make the tour itself pay its way by means of public Meetings, Lantern Lectures, etc., but my main ambition is not mercenary. My hope, rather, is that (making all allowances for the difference of outlook native to the Dominion), there may be opportunities, at least worth discussing on spot, of carrying forward the peculiar work of Toc H. in Canada.

CONCLUSION.

I realise, of course, that both in the matter of social unity, and in the treatment of the problem of the post-adolescent (which we of Toc H. see as the most vital problem of to-day), the learning must be rather on my side, and the teaching on theirs. It is simply a voyage of discovery, on my part, and I need not say how grateful I shall be to those who hold office both in the Schools and Universities of Canada, if they will allow me to lay the matter before them, and also before those upon whose young shoulders a double responsibility now devolves.

I leave England by the Empress of Britain on the 6th January, and go first to stop with the Byngs at Ottawa until the 18th of January, then accompanying them to Montreal for an inaugural meeting there on the 22nd. I hope to have the opportunity of spending the last week of January at the University of Toronto, and thence move Westward, visiting on my way to Vancouver, Cities, Schools and University centres.

I must return to England early in March. Any letters before January 18th should be addressed to me c.o. Government House, Ottawa; and after that, c.o. The Bank of Montreal, in Montreal.

Yours more than sincerely,

From

I am glad to take this opportunity of again sending a Message to all Members of Toc H., both in the Old Country and overseas, and to all who responded so generously to my message in "THE CHRISTMAS SPIRIT".

I saw for myself what the Old House did for officers and men serving and suffering in the Ypres Salient, and the progress already made since the rebirth of Toc H., is really wonderful, and has my cordial sympathy at every stage.

I welcome especially the growth of the Junior Membership; the opening of the provincial Houses; and the endowments of the Memorial Chaplaincies. As Patron of Toc H., I thank those who have by their united efforts made these things possible.

Toc H., is plainly one of the best things of its kind emerging from the years of sacrifice, and I wish the best of luck to all ranks in the big field of work which they have undertaken.

Dear Mr. Glassco,

A day or two since you telephoned to me that Mr. Neville Chamberlain would be in Montreal for a day or two, and you sent me a letter from him to General Currie and also a letter of introduction from Colonel Amery to Sir Arthur. In Sir Arthur's absence you asked me to see what could be done for Mr. Chamberlain.

I find that this gentleman arrived in Montreal on the evening of September 16th. and that he was to stay at the Ritz Carlton. I accordingly called at the Ritz Carlton and left a note for him stating that General Currie was away, that I should be very glad indeed to show him over the University and give him any information with reference to it if he would communicate with me either by note or telephone upon his arrival. In my note I stated that possibly he might wish to postpone his visit to the University until his return to Montreal toward the close of October when he would have the opportunity of seeing General Currie personally.

I received a message from Mr. Chamberlain this morning that he was only staying in Montreal two or three days but that he would be back again later on and that as he was much occupied at present he would prefer to postpone his visit to the University until his return. I am, therefore, returning to you herewith the letters in question with the information that Mr. Chamberlain on his return to Montreal in October will call on Sir Arthur Currie.

I may say also that I have this morning had a long

Dear Mr. Hudd:-

I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter of October 16th.

I was already aware of the plans of Yale University in connection with this History course. Their action is very much to be commended and might very well be followed by other universities in the United States and Canada.

I am sorry that I did not see the Honourable Sir Sivaswamy Aiyer on Monday. Your letter did not arrive until Monday morning and it so happened that I was away from the city for the day, having left on Sunday night. However, the Vice-Principal, Dr. Frank Adams, called upon him and I think he saw something of the University.

Dear Sir,

May I call your attention to an article in the November Atlantic Monthly entitled "What are College Games For" by Alexander Meiklejohn. This was rather interesting to me after our discussion at dinner when you were in Grand'mere. There is one point which the writer emphasises which I tried somewhat unsuccessfully to bring out in the discussion. He says;

" We need from our friends support and favour
"but far more than these we need from our own
"graduates genuine and sympathetic understanding
"of what we are trying to do."

Dear Sir Arthur,

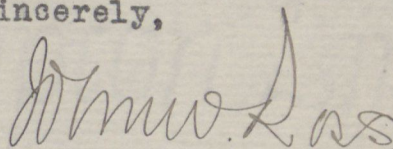

On the occasion of Dr. John R. Mott's visit in the interests of young men and boys, Lieut.Col. Gerald W. Birks and I are inviting a few friends who are also interested in the youth and student life of the City, to meet him at Luncheon in the Blue Room of the Windsor Hotel next Tuesday, November 28th., at 12.45 p.m., and we would request the pleasure of your presence.

As head of the World's Students Christian Federation, Dr. Mott is an outstanding figure, classed by the Bishop of London as one of the great forces of the age, while Theodore Roosevelt characterized him as one of the five greatest living statesmen.

We are asking him to speak to us on "The Demand of the Modern Age on the Lay Forces of the Nation", a subject which his repeated world-wide journeys well qualify him to deal with.

Hoping you will be able to be present,

Yours sincerely,

My dear Sir:

The Rev. Dr. R. A. King, Principal of the Christian College, Indore, Central India, is in Canada on a short furlough, and is seeking to inform himself on educational problems here with a view to the solution of similar problems in India.

Dr. King is a member of the Advisory Committee appointed by the Government of the United Provinces as to Indian students going abroad for study. He is a Fellow of the Allahabad University, and also a member of the Advisory Council on Education in Central India.

He is thus charged with a good many problems as well as responsibility, and wishes to carry back with him as much helpful information as is available. He has already had an interview with President Falconer as well as with heads of educational institutions in Winnipeg and so forth across to the Pacific. He has an appointment with Premier King on Tuesday the 19th inst., and would like to have an interview with you on the 18th inst. if that is possible.

As Dr. King leaves for India early in January, he is naturally crowded for time, and would much appreciate an early reply, and I hope a favorable one. If this is found practicable, he will leave Toronto on the night train 17th inst., reaching Montreal in the morning, and can meet you at any time which may prove most convenient.

Dear Sir Arthur,

Thank you very much for your letter of welcome - it was very kind of you to write.

I did come out to Canada in '21, & spent a week at a Congress at Toronto - but it was the empty season, so only took a motor drive round Montreal.

The details of my future plans are still uncertain - but I should, first or last, come to Canada; & I will not forget your courteous & kind letter -

OTTAWA TRACTION COMPANY LIMITED

248 ALBERT STREET

OTTAWA, CANADA, Jan. 14th, 1924

Lieut. General Sir Arthur Currie G.C.B.,
McGill University,
Montreal, Que.

Dear General Currie:

I feel that I may write to you because you were my next door neighbor while you lived in Ottawa, and because I was able to show in a practical manner during the last campaign to raise funds for McGill that I was a supporter of your great University.

A syndicate which I formed, has built the Ottawa Auditorium, which is a very large artificial ice rink and convention and concert hall combined, and generally admitted to be the best of its kind in Canada. Yesterday I had the pleasure of a visit from Major Brown, Mr. Forbes and Mr. Pitts, who said that there was a possibility of McGill or affiliated interests erecting a large artificial ice rink and concert hall like our Auditorium, with a gymnasium attached to it. I gladly told them the history of our Auditorium enterprise and showed them over it.

Among other things, I gave them as my opinion, that to ensure an adequate revenue, professional hockey and amateur city league hockey, as well as the University hockey teams, would have to be assured playing there. I was informed that you seemed much opposed to professional hockey.

I am backing the Ottawa professional team in the National Hockey League, and I am doing so because I believe it to be the best way to build up hockey, which I consider the finest of all games—because the large crowds that attend are kept interested. Years ago I was tremendously interested in amateur hockey and finally backed an amateur team in Ottawa. I had an unhappy experience with it. It put me on the inside of amateur hockey, and I learned things that opened my eyes. I found that outside of universities, there was practically no such thing as amateur hockey in the true sense of the word. It was veiled professionalism all through, not only in Ottawa, but in all our large cities. If the players did not get actual money they received payment in kind, and it is so to-day.

I tried to figure it all out and I believe that the answer is this: Football and hockey are strenuous games, and they also use up a lot of the time of those who play. Our young men look for compensation because we have no leisured class as in England and in some parts of the United States. The demand for compensation was unfortunately supplied in the beginning of these games, outside of the Universities. Now the whole amateur structure in Canada is honeycombed with veiled professionalism as a result, and I believe that it is too late to mend it except by permitting amateurs and professionals to play together as is done in cricket in England.

OTTAWA TRACTION COMPANY LIMITED

OTTAWA,
CANADA.

All over the country young men are signing affidavits which state that they are receiving no compensation whatsoever, when, as a matter of fact, it is not true. It is absolutely demoralizing, all the more so as the players are mostly very young men and in some cases only boys.

That is the reason why people like myself are supporting open, honest professional hockey, and that is why the public in Ottawa, Toronto and Hamilton are deserting the amateur hockey games for the professional ones. I do not mention Montreal because I feel that the professional team there might be in better hands. I would, and I think most people would infinitely prefer to have these games amateur, but I am convinced that we cannot have honest amateurism, outside the universities, unless we have a very large leisured class in Canada, and that is only a remote possibility, and I am glad that it is.

I trust you will forgive me writing this gratuitous letter, but I thought that you might be interested in hearing a point of view that, no doubt, differs from the orthodox one held by most well to do people. I can honestly say that I formed these opinions from close contact with amateur hockey, and what I have done was done because I love hockey and want to help put it on a firm and decent basis. I am so situated that I do not need to or want to profit from it.

I would not think of writing this to you, sir, but I know from the conversations I have had with my oldest friend, Willis O'Connor, and from your speeches, how much value you set on having the young men of Canada lusty and athletic, and making hockey popular helps a lot in that direction.

Believe me, Sir,

Yours very sincerely,

trouble was a cyst in the lower jaw bone which had made considerable progress without any warning to me of its

The very kind welcome which you were good enough to accord my friend Mr. Nicholson induces me to give a letter of introduction to another friend of mine, The Very Rev. E.A. Burroughs, D.D., the Dean of Bristol, who is shortly going over to Canada. The extraordinary rapidity of his brilliant career and the success which he has achieved in the academic as well as in the ecclesiastical field are eloquent testimonies to his distinction as a Churchman and a scholar, but it is chiefly as a delightful companion that you will like to meet him. You will find that he will be extremely interested to learn anything you can tell him concerning the University which you govern and the country which, so to speak, you personally brought over to mine during the war.

To-day Mr. Hamfelt presented your letter of introduction dated 17th of last June. He delayed until now because he felt that he was unable to speak English sufficiently well. He tells me that while he learned English at school he never practised speaking it and since leaving school had made no attempt to use it. I was impressed to-day by the ease and facility with which he expressed himself.

He has been using our Museum and Library during the winter and apparently is satisfied with the progress he has made. I introduced him to some Professors who work in fields kindred to his own.

Let me assure you that it was a pleasure to oblige you in any way. Mr. Hamfelt tells me that you expect to return to Canada shortly. I hope I may have the pleasure of seeing you then.

After many and long wanderings have I at last settled down for some little time in my old country to clear up a few family matters.

A friend, Mr. B. K. Hamfelt B. A. B. Sc., is, with his family, leaving for Canada some time in September this year and intends to take up his residency in Montreal for the winter.

He is desirous of pursuing some studies in Canada, the details of which he will give you himself, but as a friend I would be pleased if my old Corps Commander would facilitate his work by introduction to those who can help him by advice or otherwise.

It might interest you to know that while here in Stockholm last winter I had the pleasure of hearing Sir Ian Hamilton lecture on the Gallipoli affair and a month afterwards Liman von Sanders lecture on the same subject. Was it not a pity they could not both have been on the platform the same time.

Dear Sir Arthur;

In a recent number of the " Star" I saw thst you had been ill and had to postpone your intended visit to Europe , but I trust that it is only a pleasure deferred for a short time , and that you will be yourself again very propmtly.

Referring to our previous correspondence , and my mentioning that a friend was going to pay Montreal a visit etc. R.A.Crothers , the gentleman in question , left here this a.m. on his trans -continental Motor trip . He will be due in Montreal on or about July 5th , and intends visiting the Burser of Mc Gill at once to get from him the latest list of Graduatesso that he may look up any of his contemporaries who may be living.

If you are to be absent at that time , please leave directions to have Mr Crothers shown some little attention , He will be interested in seeing the new buildings I am sure . I have advised my brother George about the matter and have no doubt that he will do something for him. I gave Mr Crothers the " Stars" with the accounts of the closing exercises of the University , conferring of degrees etc, and he is pretty well posted now. With kind regards , I remain

Dear Sir Arthur

I have much pleasure in introducing to you Mr & Mrs Waddington who are travelling through Canada. As an officer in the French Army you will I know, extend to me a very special welcome.

It is not the best season to visit our fair land but the warmth of Canadian hospitality will make them forget it is not mid-summer.

My kindest regards to Lady Currie and Margery, my husband tells me he has had the pleasure of seeing you. I thank you for your kindness. General Brutinel is always very busy.

The girls join me in sending our kindest regards to you all

Yours very sincerely

Sir D. Currie, G.C.B., Principal, McGill University,
MONTREAL,
Canada.

Dear Sir David Currie,

Professor Stewart, Head of the Medical School of the Leeds University, is coming overseas to investigate University conditions in connection with Medicine. He sails by the s. s. "Berengaria" on March 20th. and will stay at the Pennsylvania Hotel, New York, for some time.

I have suggested to him that he should see you when in Montreal, and I shall be glad if you will give him any assistance or help for my sake.

Particularly do I want Stewart to see your new Pathological Laboratory.

Kind regards,

Yours very truly,

David Stewart

Dear Professor Stewart:-

Thank you very much for your letter of March 28th telling me of your movements.

We shall be very pleased to welcome you at McGill on Thursday, May 6th.
Dr. C. F. Martin, Dean of the Faculty of Medicine, and Dr. Certel, Professor of Pathology, will both be here at that time and will be glad to do what they can for you.

Yours faithfully,

Principal.

Dear Professor Stewart:-

I am this morning in receipt of a letter from Sir Ernest Bain telling me of your visit to this country in order to investigate University Medical Schools.

I do not think your trip would be complete without a visit to McGill. I believe we have something interesting to see and when you come we shall try to make your visit pleasant.

Hoping that you may find it possible to come to Montreal, I am,

Yours faithfully,

Principal.

March 24th, 1926.

My dear Sir Ernest Bain:-

Let me acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 10th of March re the visit of Professor Stewart.

I am addressing a letter to him at the Pennsylvania Hotel, New York, saying that we shall be glad to see him in Montreal. I will do all possible to make his visit pleasant and instructive.

With all good wishes, I am,

Yours faithfully,

Sir A. Ernest Bain,

My dear Mr. Harman:-

I have your letter of June 15th with reference to the forthcoming visit to Montreal of the Reverend Canon P. U. Henn. I am afraid that if he comes before the 5th of July I shall not have the pleasure of meeting him. I am leaving tomorrow morning for Quebec. From there I go to Harvard, after which I am going for a week's fishing; so that it will be the 5th before I am in the office again.

Colonel Bovey of my staff will be very glad to look after Canon Henn.

With all good wishes to Mrs. Harman and yourself, I am,

Yours faithfully,

Principal,
McGill University,
Montreal, Que.

Dear Sir Arthur:-

The Reverend Canon P.U. Henn

I have taken the liberty of giving the above, who is an uncle of some friends of mine, a letter to you.

For your information, Canon Henn has resided in Australia for twenty six years, being engaged in his profession as head-master of a Boys' School for most of this time. Latterly, however, he was interested in a large sheep run.

As no doubt you are exceedingly busy at this time of the year, if you can have some one show Canon Henn some of the Faculty Buildings, and see that he is introduced to Professor Leacock, I shall esteem it a personal favour. Although I was a pupil of the latter's at Upper Canada College I have not seen him for years, and have no doubt faded from his memory.

Yours faithfully,

My dear Sir Frank:-

To-day I had the pleasure of meeting Sir William McCormick in my office, when he gave me your note of introduction. We had a brief chat, but I am leaving now for the University Club where we intend to spend an hour together.

I appreciate very much the courtesy of his call and I am sure that I shall profit much from our exchange of views.

All goes well at McGill.

My dear General Currie,

This note is to introduce to you Sir William McCormick, the Chairman of the Advisory Council of this Department, who is going to Canada at the end of this month and will be visiting Montreal. Sir William is also, as you know, Chairman of the important University Grants Committee under the Treasury here, which allocates State aid to the Universities of this country. I am sure that you would like the opportunity of meeting Sir William and exchanging experiences with him, for there is no one in this country who knows more about our Universities than he does.

With kind regards, believe me,

Yours sincerely,

Dear Sir Arthur:-

Many thanks for your letter of yesterday. I have written Dr. Roselli telling him that if at any time he is coming to Canada we would be very glad to have him advise us ~~and so that~~ if the dates suited we would be glad to have him address the Canadian Club of Ottawa.

K. A. Greene, Esq.,

Ottawa, Ont.

My dear Mr. Greene:-

I have your letter of yesterday with reference to a possible visit to Montreal of Dr. Bruno Roselli.

It is true that there has been some talk of his coming to McGill to speak to our Canadian Club, but the students have decided that it is too near examination time to indulge in any public meeting. We have therefore wired to Dr. Roselli telling him of that decision.

I hope I shall see something of you about the middle of the month when I go to Ottawa for a couple of days.

Most cordially reciprocating your good wishes, I am,

Yours faithfully,

21 Elgin Street,
1st April 1925

Dear Sir Arthur:-

I understand from Mr. C.G.Heward, the Honorary Secretary of the Canadian Club of Montreal, that you have invited Dr. Bruno Roselli of Vassar College to come up sometime this month to address the students of McGill University.

The Canadian Club of Ottawa would be very glad of an opportunity to hear Dr. Roselli and if we knew the exact date that you are having him we would extend him an invitation to come on to Ottawa and speak to us, or perhaps if more convenient he could speak to us at luncheon in Ottawa and go on to Montreal for an evening address.

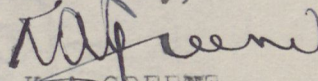

I note that the Montreal Canadian Club paid him a fee of $50. Our Club is not in the habit of paying any fees to speakers but we are perfectly prepared to pay expenses and I presume that McGill does the same thing so that if we shared the expenses of his round trip they should not be very heavy for either of us.

We have no engagements for our Club for the month of April except Wednesday the 29th, but as it is difficult for us to get the hotel on any days but Wednesdays or Saturdays and at this time of the year Saturday conflicts with golf, if at all possible we would prefer to have the luncheon on the 15th or the 22nd.

Will you kindly let me know how this would suit your plans.

With very kind regards to Lady Currie and yourself, I am

Yours sincerely,

My dear Sir Arthur,

I must apologize for not calling on you while in Montreal yesterday. I did not have a half hour to myself, having stayed in your city twenty-six hours and having given three lectures during that time! I left greetings for you with Dean & Mrs. MacKay, who were kind enough to come to one of my lectures despite the manifold demands of a very busy day.

I sincerely hope that I shall have better luck at the time of my next visit to Mount real, which will be January ninth to eleventh.

Dear Dr. Roselli:-

Thank you very much for your letter and may I say how much I regret that I did not have an opportunity of seeing you while you were in Montreal.

At the present time I am so extremely busy that I scarcely know which way to turn. I shall look forward to seeing you in January.

Yours faithfully,

Principal.
