Dear Sir.

We thank you for your Postal Order for 19/10 in payment of enclosed 3 invoices. We had already received payment for invoice dated May 14th in your cheque on May 20th. So we will deduct this 2/6 from our next invoice.

Will you be so kind as to note our new address? We sent a post-card advising it, but expect it got mislaid, as your remittance was sent to Old. Queen St.

We wished to move West, nearer the Medical neighbourhood, but could not find a place quite suitable; so we shall be here for a while. If our Medical business goes very well shall hope to move West eventually.

With best thanks.

Yours faithfully.

In Hale-White's pamphlet (Proc. R. S. M., Section Hist. Med., 22:37-41, footnote, p. 37)
I am quoted as saying that W. O. paid £ 20. for the Withering Letters, # 7637. I must have got that figure from Bligh. Perhaps W. O. bought the letters piecemeal in more than one lot?
