

COS417/52.34

(Card to Dr. Cushing)
(handwriting)

ROME

July
(July 11, 1909)

Rome at last! Wonderful What pigmies we are in comparison with these old fellows. So much to see & everything intensely interesting. I have not yet been to the Vatican Library. Splendid bookshops here. I have already got some treasures. Redi and Valsneri - splendid editions. So glad of your letter to-day (11th). Love to the darlings.

Yours

W.O.

Opere di Francesco Redi Napoli 1748

The vols were in the mantle at the hotel when they reached there. Bt by Rossi Jan 27 09 of Duc Massimo's library Rome.

Waller in no.

* When in Rome Feb 1909 I heard a great deal of 'talk' about this 'Devil' known as the wickedest devil and is believed to have the bad evil eye. Many people will not mention his name. Once at a big reception just to become into the room the Chandeliers fell and killed 3 people. A friend - today said to me that they were 'four or mice' and that the fig's

Feb. 11/09

