From the Regius Professor of Medicine, Oxford.

Dear H. C.,

I bought a second copy of Maxwell's Vesalius about which Quaritch tells me that you had written, but I judged you could not have sent a bid as I got it for £3. Do you wish it for any special purpose, as, of course, you could have it? If not I thought of sending to to Sudhoff's Institute. I wrote to S. ten days ago asking him to find out definitely about the proposed re-issue.

I hope all goes well with you and the family. We have had a very busy term.
Love to Kate and the darlings,

Sincerely yours,

WM OSLER
