Dearest Kate

We have had such a happy week end with your beloved - and he has promised to come back on Thursday to stay - He is like a nice boat with sails set for the west and just bobbing up and down in the breeze - He pretends he thinks the children will not know him & from their photos I hardly think he will know them. Harvey seems uncertain as to plans but perhaps he goes very soon and you'll be happy once more - We have had such a party - Mary Fay, Billie Francis, Sue Revere & Susan Chapin, Jason Mixter - the old people but - but - oh - Kate dear - I shall never feel that it was right for that boy to have been killed - When I look at Harvey and think he was beside him and saw him go - I can only be thankful for that and the blessed memory we have - W. O. is too pathetic - I only wonder the everlasting keeping up doesn't kill him - I hope you will like our memorial to Revere - If you haven't heard Harvey will ^{sure} tell you all about it - A Library at the Hopkins of English Literary of his favorite period.

I think it will be satisfactory and you will help them to do it properly - you and Harvey - Heaps of love -

Always affctly,

Tante Grace.
