THE INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF MEDICAL MUSEUMS

Sir William Osler Memorial

THE memorial volume now being published under the auspices of the International Association of Medical Museums (representing its Bulletin No. IX), comprises a large series of personal and biographical articles reminiscent of the life and activities of the late Sir William Osler during the different periods of his career, written by intimate friends and associates. This was primarily intended as a contribution, from first-hand evidence, to our knowledge of those early cultural influences and biological and pathological researches which militated so largely to his development as a leading teacher and master of Clinical Medicine; but it has been extended through numerous valuable contributions received, to cover all phases of his many-sided life. The scope and plan of the work are outlined in charming introductory articles by Sir Clifford Allbutt and Professor William Welch, and it is completed by a classified Bibliography of Sir William Osler's publications (based on the chronological bibliography by Miss M. W. Blogg), and by a bibliography of "Writings About Osler."

The volume will be handsomely bound in cloth and contains over sixty illustrations, both photogravure engravings and half-tone prints. The edition is being privately issued by subscriptions to the volume paid in advance, and with the aid of a publication fund which was inaugurated in January, 1921, by generous initial contributions from the National Research Council of Washington, the late Sir Edmund Osler and the late Hon. Mr. Justice Featherstone Osler (brothers of Sir William Osler), Mrs. K. S. Reford, of Montreal, and Mr. J. J. Carty, of New York. The price of the bound copy is ten dollars ($10.00), and subscriptions to it, or contributions of a larger amount to the publication fund, are needed and invited.

Cheques should be made payable to the International Association of Medical Museums (Osler Memorial Volume) and may be addressed, for the convenience of subscribers to either one of the following:
