

TELEPHONE: REGENT 6400.
TELEGRAMS: c/o HELLENIST, (PICCY.)

CUS417/53.21
1. Aug. 1924.

THE ATHENÆUM,

PALL MALL, S.W.1.

2923

Osler's Life

p. 76 line 4. I think Osler meant
'rat-riddled'. He often makes allusions in his sentences, to modern ports & others.
I think he had in mind Browning

"at the foot of your rotten-runged rat-riddled stairs"

(Master Augustus & Mrs. Gotha - last line)

rat-ridden does not seem to me to mean anything.

Sheets 7-H returned herewith

Thomas Ripon.