To Dr. Flick from Mr. Clark Bell.

Medico-Legal Society, Office of the Secretary,
39 Broadway, New York City.

Dec. 8, 1899.

Dear Sir:

I enclose you the action of the Medico-Legal Society and invite you to take part in the Congress, and if unable to attend in person, please forward me the title of the paper you will contribute.

Professor Keyes will open the discussion on the second topic.

Dr. J. Mount Bleyer will open the discussion on the first and third topic and will take part in the discussion of the second.

The formal programme will give a more complete announcement, if you will allow your name to be scheduled for the discussion please indicate on which of the topics you will speak or write. An early reply will be in time for the next issue of the Medico-Legal Journal.

Faithfully yours,

Clark Bell.
