To Dr. Flick from Dr. Knopf.

New York City,
March 22, 1904.

Lawrence F. Flick, M.D.

My dear Doctor:

I have your favor of yesterday and am sorry to learn that we will not have the pleasure of meeting Maragliano. Don't you think it would not be better to postpone the general meeting of the Committee to an evening hour? I am sure that many more of our New York men, and also more of the Baltimore, Boston and even Philadelphia men would then be present.

I shall suggest this change also to Drs. Osler and Jacobs. As I have written before, I shall avail myself of the pleasure of being present at your luncheon, provided nothing unforeseen prevents me.

Very sincerely yours,

S. A. Knopf.
