To Dr. Flick from Dr. Bowditch

Boston,
March 23, 1904.

My dear Dr. Flick:

I have your kind letter and hasten to thank you. I am sorry Dr. Maragliano cannot come but I know we shall enjoy much nevertheless.

Will Mr. Phipps be present on Monday? I am very desirous of meeting him if only for a few moments.

Hoping to see you on Monday, I am

Very sincerely yours,

Vincent Y. Bowditch.

I expect to stay with Prof. John Rolfe, 4408 Locust Street, and hope to join you on Saturday night.
