

Nov. 4 1961

The section of the Leary series are to what he used to call the

"Hill House and Death" series - was based on spiritualism, immortality, longevity, resurrectionists of prolongation of life, personal burial, age, growth, preexistence, resurrection, "Self-murder" modes of dying, love of death, fear of death, euthanasia, suicide astrology (cryptic gazette, dreams, spirits) sleep & pain - including cremation & disposal of the dead
Dreams & their interpretation

Acaps of Hill House concerning W.O. last illness

Memorable book "Words in Pain" (among many) was the times from King Richard II II.

... the tongues of dying men
Surface attention like deep hammering;
Where words are scarce, they are seldom spent in vain;
For they breathe truth, they breathe
their words in pain.

Put this in comment on W.O's study of 'lost words'
for Ingersoll & Leclair!
We may have had in mind.

Woman's concern of love who commit the suicide was probably on

Cf. James Weber Iconography of Death - ~~in~~ ^a vol. dedicated to W.O. Get this or read the Review in the Annals of NYU. Comes in with Rev. of Mauleverer on Death.

Alvin Lloyd "Raymond" (formed by success Paul Jamington & Conroy Doyle)

What Mercier's limits of epidemics in the pursuit of the occult occur with the repeating of epidemics of masses and love words never enters dis out in the interests.

Miracles are not to be presumed until natural cause have been ruled out. Mercier's final sentence, attrib. to W.O. to Octham (the Inevitable Doctor)