July Reliquia Juris Consultae

A. Klebs and H.B. Jacobs from Dürer to Geneva to see some books & to take him in Thierry Baumgarten's Co. Librari Avenue in the rue Didot etc. where M. Thierry had a secret room with his treasures which he had not fully analyzed. K. knew him and he let them in. The first book their eye lighted on was a ^{fat} calf 12^{mo} labeled the Reliquia Medici. They took down & looked at it usually - Mr. D. knew little about it - how much did he want for it - ^{for it} oh. / 20 francs. ^{although he was over charging.} He got his Latin analysis could hardly want to examine the book but had seen that it was one of the serruflucens editions. Maglani found it was the 1st serruflucens edn but contained also, the observations of Gmelin de Gb, a Reliquia Juris Consultae 1649 and a 1st serruflucens edn of the in fact of Hudebus - all for a Louis.

K. sent this to W.O. who loaned them again

Reliquia Juris Consultae

Lunden Printed for Henry Hand 1649

Klebs says every letter from W.O. was a thrill - something new and usually given in 2x hours work. His some digressions made him so into it.
