Dear James: That is a nice de Motu Cordis is it not? I had it & another copy here last week to look over & take my pick. There has not been a copy offered in England since 1895 when an imperfect copy was sold at Sotheby's for 10 guineas. Then these two turned up together. My copy is from Milne Edwards Library in Paris. It is an excessively rare book. Rosenthal tells me he has not had a copy offered in Germany for years.

Yours sincerely
