

CUS 417/6.36

Clubs

The Royal Soc^y Club

The club has been ^{to 1650±} to the remarkable men who founded the Royal Soc^y - organic meeting; held in some tavern espec. Bull Head in Chesapeake & Gresham College during latter time. Over 250 years existence.

Royal Soc^y organized. organized by Chas II 1662

The philosophers were at the same time conversational Englishmen, not the type of taverns.

There were two kinds of gatherings - (1) the Fellows in a body on the Anniversary day Nov 30
(2) a ~~group~~ ^{select company of fellows} who would adjourn after other meetings & treatise.
as described by Pepys on some who were known as Club supper. This grew into a definite great-wine archery by 1743 weekly meeting on Thursdays. At present there are 66 members. P.R.S. President, meet informally.

Recently incorporated with the Philosophical Club etc