

CUS417/37.32

True speaking

Also may write on his advice a Chronicon

d this, to never be ill of another but if forced out for cannot 'let the hand word die' or a Silence is always possible, than which we have no better weapon in our armoury against true speaking lying & slandering. "

d

Man cannot be driven of resentment to take possession of us save when true men's face conversation may give a better "