Med. Ch. Council. The English Council would
the minutes passed in 1840.

Heron presiding at the Infants Welfare Association and had heard in the report that more perambulators were needed - a defect about he said in his swimming up could be easily remedied And afterwards only the ^{same} ~~same~~ selection in the audience whom he proposed to take ~~at~~ ^{to} office then & there and the more we proposed.

Perhaps the most remarkable of these may be the one that of rapid, rushing and then permanent retaining friendships where the speaker to and place at his side, as naturally his equal, a young man somewhat in awe of a former leader of his opposition, secured on every matter in his hands and no doubt by the influence of his wonderful sympathy that never failed and at the some time we mean otherwise to other than material is a very common error

May be shared judge of character, neither his opinion or the reason for it, if unfavorable, was ever given unless there was some urgent reason, and then the more surroundings were blamed on a semi-humorous phrase settled the question without further affecting reputation. H.D. Rollins
