

CUS417/37.37 Aristotle

W.O., met down and could take Aristotle 'philosophy' with them at high table and what is more could help them things about Aristotle

10 Francis Pemberton & all Sons
John Letter from one of the College heads, in relation to a commission.

"I have always made it a prime article of my creed, ut de fide, that Aristotle knew everything, but I had never realized how wide was the range of his biological attainments."

Went to Aristotle
Roman came down for Edinburgh for the purpose of going over W.O.'s things in his own respect.
