

Nurses.

1889
Nurses.

417/37/58

CUS417/37.59

an accomplished common fit disciple of Nurse Mythology

At Hurd's school - June 1889 the nursing work was under the charge of Miss Parslow on English for which nurse afterwards Sept. 7 who had an awful history as an army nurse

Nurse at the time. 1 Mr. Hospital management in private ward in Boston. Miss Houghton was not to come till October

a few of her domestic regentary force
The kitchen was in charge of Elvina Emory the Purveyor a domestic who did much to relieve the life of the day

Miss Isabelle Houghton a woman of great personal influence a born leader among women organized the Nursing School as a consolidated part of the hospital for the first time in the country except the B.C.H.

The early days of the Nursing School for Nurses at the Johns Hopkins Hospital, J.H. Hurd
The J.H. Nurses Alumnae Magazine May 1921

Cf. Dr. F. M. Cole.

CUNARD R.M.S. "SAMARIA."