

TEL.
7083 WESTERN.

CVS417/39.31

82, CORNWALL GARDENS,
S.W.

17th May, 1914

Dear Sir William Osler

In writing yesterday about Ariceuna I forgot to mention as a possible sympathiser Prof. E. G. Brane, Arthur Adams Professor of Arabic at Cambridge - He is a well-known Persian Scholar, who has spent a considerable time in the country, & has written two stout volumes on the history of Persian literature - I don't know whether he is specially interested in Avicenna; but, since he is himself an M.D. and a member of your profession, I think it very probable that he may be. He will certainly be able to give the latest information as to any publication of Avicenna's poems -

His address is "Firwood, Truro - pington Road, Cambridge "

very truly yours

A. Hyatt