

CUS417/40.1

302 Cathedral Street
Baltimore, Maryland

Dear Harvey: I am very grateful to you for lecturing me see this dignified and feeling tribute to Peary Oles. I am greatly impressed by it. Mr. Muirhead's Characterization of her is my own, we evidently saw her with the same eyes.

I wish that I could say that the "hurdles"
of the Canadian and American period had

Matter of fact you have done all the labor for the biography.

Strangely, Mrs Knicker's memoir leaves me profoundly sad which shows, of course, the genuineness of the picture.

Very affectionately
Edith G. R

May I ever send you what I have done and get the reclia?

O^u B. 1930

been finally taken, & have taken them rather rapidly, and it's quite in the Carpet that you may suggest my taking them over again!

My method of work has been to read all I could find that might throw light on his life, see it thoroughly soak in, and then,
to put all, but your life, aside and write rapidly my own impressions. As a