

To Morgan, Harvey's Ho. 14 Place Vendôme Paris.
 Birthday, Dec. 13. We have come to rest for a moment for a friend has been as her Egyptian Collier for six weeks while she is in England. Yesterday, the first volume of your Ode came and I finished the first reading at midnight. I was at it about 10 hours straight. It is monumental - an erection in words with the same low, spirit & dignity that characterizes many of the war memorials. He was, of course, a victim too! Congratulations on your fitting tribute to a great man.

We have had a great year wondering about in the by ways of Europe hoping to re-construct our background to fit the new conditions. It is a good deal like a jig saw puzzle.

Have heard from Harvey. Am glad that things seem to have settled down for him.
 Our feelings to you both.

His ever
 J. H. F.
