June 4, 1925.

Dr. Harvey Cushing,
Peter Bent Brigham Hospital, 721 Huntington Avenue, Boston, Mass.

Dear Dr. Cushing:

I have your letter of June 3rd, and shall of course use freely quotations from some of the reviews, but I thought that in addition, quotations from some letters you have received would be useful.

The Stuart P. Sherman review was most excellent, and will no doubt sell many copies. The demand is very strong, really unusually so, and we see no reason why it should not continue clear through the Christmas holidays.

We do not understand the complaint to which you refer about the Boston Booksellers not having any stock. A short time ago there was a space of two days when we had no copies in stock, but every order is now being filled the same day it is received. A total of 39 copies were sold in Atlantic City. This is much less than we had expected, but our agent reports that the majority of the doctors to whom he spoke about it had already bought a copy.

We enclose herewith a copy of a circular we have just sent out. Would you care to have some of these for your own use?

Yours very truly,
