Dear Lady Osh -

How many hundreds like myself must have been thrilled & transported by the biography - one doesn't seem to have been living in the present at all. Every touch one had with that radiant personality in hospital, at Notham gardens, at the bedside is multiplied a thousand fold & all just exactly as one knew him & loved him.

If this house were breaking down I know my family would visit at the bookcase to snatch the autographed Principles & Practice from the flames. although they're only known ^{2nd} hand what it meant.

one has no right
perhaps to interfere with one's personal feelings but it is so wonderful to get her again one can't keep to oneself.

I looked in the telephone book & see you are still at Northam for dues so I hope you will forgive.

Yours very sincerely
Esther Parkins
