Dear Harry you have given many people, so able to tell you, of your wonderful book.
I cannot find the words
to express our feelings for it, it is beyond me, only I must let you know how it

nothing calm and peaceful, it is the bad note. The war mark all say and is full of heart pain
because what you hear
make us all love

For so many! —
The loss and gratitude to you always! Yours
Mary B. G. G. G.

has helped, more than
that, sustained us.
Mrs. this awful period
of heat, your kind kind kindly prostrated
will listen by the house if we want it to Ohio! and is hearing of such a man as D. R.
William, by such a man, we keep
