My dear Harry,
Thank you

so much for your nice letter. It was a real cheerful letter & I have to write last Monday.
I had a charming English couple & would like to meet. He was Mr. Hughes Lecturer in the Black North she was shot into the Horns by Lord Pomona during the war to speak in Lord Gmelin's room. Mrs L, intensely interested in from 1846. She had been with J. R. T. I was deep in it. How did you like it?

Why didn't it take ten years.
It is a great movement of the 19th century. It is a magnificent movement. It takes the case of the Central
