SPRINGFIELD, MASS. June 10, 1925.

Dr Harvey Cushing,
Boston.

Dear Sir:-

Your kind letter regarding The Republican's review of the Life of Osler has been referred to me as literary editor, and that process also communicates your thanks to the writer of the review. I was glad, of course, to do what little I could to honor so worthy a personality and to make known where the revealing and faithful record could be found. I am sure that it is a satisfaction to me that my notice seemed adequate, for, of course, the miscellaneous reviewing done in newspaper offices is often in the nature of rush work.

Adding my personal congratulations, I am,

Very truly yours,

E. H. Jencks, Jr.
