Old South Parsonage
Boylston St. Boston

June 16, 1925.

Dear Doctor Aueling:

I wrote you from a
full heart on Sunday June 14. Carried away as I was by the honor done
me by the gift of your magnificent life of Coker, I may infinite amaze you. I find that I addressed you
at 305 Walnut

Who took it

It will be a mere of light Delight for this whole summer, they say.

Forgive my blunder, I am too early meeting the very first to! My blunder spiles all.

Sheet, Proctor, instead of Marble.

I hope the wife will get by on to show
my appreciation of
yrs goodness to me,
and indicate
the immense
impression made
upon me after a week. Three

Shall claim another chance with your real faithful friend,

Your personal friend,

George W. Smith.
