My dear Dr. Cushing:

I have read your life of Baker with the greatest pleasure and profit - your book and the letters of Walter Page are two of the most charming biographies I have ever read.

I hope to begin in October the collection of the letters and the material for a life of Dr. Holsted. Had that I intended to write it myself, but it should be written sometime in the near future and every year that passes will make it more difficult to get reliable and accurate data. I am in hopes that Mr. Welch will write it if all the data is collected and arranged: if he will not undertake it perhaps MacCallum would -

My plan is to engage Miss. Stokes, who was for years his secretary (and a very intelligent person), and have her collect his letters and go from place to place and take stenographic notes from his boyhood friends and class-mates and associates.

Would you please give me some suggestions about how to go about it.

I am disappointed that Green has never sent me any temporal bones from the Brigham - If you are not working them up I would be glad to do so and return sections and photographs for your records -

With much love, I am -

As ever yours -

S. J. Crowe.
