Dear Doctor Cushing:

Answering your letter of July 2/25: Thank you for the invitation; some day I will give myself the pleasure of a visit to you and Doctor Christian.

I have written Mr Chulow to send you the reviews you indicate as wanted, and also future reviews as they appear.

Tom Masson was formerly Editor of Life and is now engaged in independent literary work. He lives near my home in Glen Ridge N.J.
He has compiled several collections of humorous stories & is now doing more serious work. He is a fine character & would I am sure appreciate a line from you.

I have not yet seen Christopher Mosley's review. We will get after him.

His article in Bowling Green column was a fine appreciation of Oxford books in general

I should greatly like to see your fictitious review, and am sure it would be most effective.

Your question "How long should a biography be" reminds me of the answer to the question How long should a speech be. It should be like a woman's skirt, long enough to cover the object, and short enough to be interesting.

You have given us many helpful suggestions, and we wish we had as good a sales agent.

Very sincerely yours
H. W. W. Litch
