My dear Cushing,

Many thanks for your letter.

I am glad that you liked my "review" of your most excellent book. I have not seen the "Nation" - but remember "Woe unto you when all men speak well of you." There are a good many disgruntled individuals in the world - more in some places than in others - so you need not feel sore. I have not seen any reviews which have not been very appreciative of the splendid way in which you discharged the task - a very ~~various~~ one.

I have just returned from a visit to "The Coast". I found the atmosphere there, both physical and 'human', much to my liking!

I hope you are very well.

With best wishes and kindest regards.

Yours sincerely,

Henry M. W. Gray
