DOCTOR IRVING GRAY
112 CLINTON STREET
BROOKLYN, NEW YORK

Feb. 7th 1916.

My dear Dr. Fushing, May I be permitted to be one of the many who have written expressing in a small and rather weak measure the great joy and pleasure your "Oslerian"
has given.

I have read a few chapters before retiring each night and after finishing the 2nd volume it seemed as if I had known the late Dr. Osler all my life.
Even tho I never had the pleasure of knowing him. When I put the books

Aside, I feel as if I had parted from an old friend. My volumes are full of personal notes ~~and~~ ^{and} ~~chapters~~ ^{chapters} especially in those pages where the ~~history~~ ^{history} of Medicine and medical men are mentioned.

Your 'Life of Osler' has been an Education and a pleasure indeed.

Cordially yours,

Wm. Farr.
