

1028/57/318

CUS417/57.320

Box 585
LEESBURGH, VIRGINIA

Apr 11th 26

Dear Dr. Cushing-

It is a shame to bother a busy man, as you must be - but I have just finished your Life of Sir William Osler. a splendid biography of a charming man - so well indexed. His age & the date on each page made it a pleasure to read it and so many notable men told of - I am sick, and not able to go to the library to look up quotations -

Box 585

LEESBURGH, VIRGINIA

I wondered if you would tell me if the Religio Medici is in Latin - and translate for me, ^{the long sentence} "Comes vae vitalique the first line of
And the Latin hymn, sung at his burial, "O quanta Lualia. How did he pronounce his name? With a long or

Box 585

LEESBURGH, VIRGINIA

short "O." I hear it both ways-

Then you speak of his making an address in the Hopkins, when he came there on a visit, on Ratcliff, one of the six holders of the "Gold stick." No one can tell me this. I shall thank you so much-

Yours sincerely,

U. W. Harrison

Miss Maria W. Harrison -

Leesburg -

Virginia -

I enclose an envelope for your convenience -