Dear Harvey

I have been reading as often to myself and sometimes out loud to Ray and cannot wait any longer to write and ask how you know so much and how you do it. I don't mean prologa or shin bones as facts, but putting them together into one sentence and making it interesting. No doubt we have all grown up somewhat, but you have grown up a lot.

Love to Kate and the children

As ever
