Dublin, Nov. 30th 19 28.

Dear Dr. Cushing,

I venture to send you the enclosed editorial as an aftermath of your "Osler" — you have made him a very real, human influence to youngsters like myself, who never knew him but through his textbook, or in the pages of Aequanimitas.

When you were in Edinburgh, I presume Missie will have told you of the little plot I tried to hatch, to secure you for an extension visit here to the Academy:

Your time-table, however, was as cast-iron, to my great disappointment!

I am looking forward to re-reading "Osler" during the Xmas recess: it has become one of my "livres de chevet", a never-failing source of pleasure, and of stimulus!

Yr. sincerely, Wm. Doolin.
