Dear Henry
I had to sit sick again & finish "The Life of Osler". But it was well worth it. Again I congratulate you on ever having been able accomplish such a stupendous piece of work. in the midst of such a busy life as you lead.
It is inspiring. & such an inspiration to the younger men in medicine.
I feel as though my life had been an idle one.
I got to Sharon last Wednesday.
but was a much prostrated I am passing very rapidly here in this beautiful hill country. and hope to be myself soon. I shall take it very

Mr. Sumner is far as New York is concerned and put all my time here on finishing my Texian books for the Bowdler corner.
They are coming pretty well along.

With all good wishes Cordially & affectionately

Yours
William B. Colby

Your good letter cheered me up a lot
