Dear Dr. Cushing,

Although you address me as C.K.S. my identity is known to a good many friends in America, and I am delighted to receive your letter.

I am sorry that my review should have described your biography as too long but then that is the way with busy journalists. We have so many books to read.

However, I did think it admirably done. It gave what few biographies do, a personality, and if I did not say all the nice things but said some less friendly ones you must make allowance for the pressure at which we journalists live.

I hope that through your London publisher, Mr. Humphrey Milford, (a good friend of mine) we may meet on your next visit to England. I knew Horace Hart very well.

I am, dear Dr. Cushing,

Clement K. Shorter
