

1028/59/46

Dr. Longstaffe

J. Elliot

19 Seventh Ave

Brooklyn N.Y.

Toronto MD,
Edmonton MD,
London
Brooklyn

offst. Jerry. Went up in bus on one of days of square miles (Pasc) who came back of Toronto (Monday) and was a loyalist etc.

Had a, a concern in paper in between Thom Hill and Richmond Hill ie N.Y. journal

Mother of W. Longstaffe who went in by way of Toronto was known as York Boys. Henry Canon Oster a little short man dark quite unclean

St. Andrew's. Edward Jewell's father also small & dark]

The Longstaffe boys were:

Henry Canon Oster church was at first mill on top of hill - fine sight - has a candle organ of boys "Greece my God to thee" with peculiar stammer of worn instrument. Nearly unique instrument. W.O. Spence

Some of his boys had ~~with~~ there.

One Myles Longstaffe was one of the sons of the 12th S. and was the Dr. father while distinct about four

C05417/59.49

There was an Indian trail preceding George St.
Gen. Smicase built Ferry St. "100 miles long, the longest street in the world". Along George Street the U.S. Loyalists gave concessions i.e.
Geo. St. Jones died (preserved) to the 12th Langstaffe all the produce for the Co driven in along the street on the way to Saco, N.H., above the river in the 1700s. A fine

Two, how many stories above all ^{the} Langstaffe and the son of the 12th U.S. man.