"The Parsonage,"

Weston, Ont. 25 Decth 1870

My dear Coler.

Yours very affectionate & thoughtful gift & letter are both at hand. The Philo. is very good.
I am delighted to have it. Montreal has surely agreed with you. I could not ask a greater treat than such a work as "Preparation for Death" by Alfonso. Bp of Agathon. The subject is one of all others that I like best; really believing as I do that "better is the day" of man's death, than the day of his birth. It is divided into short meditations just suited to my time early in the morning, when I can generally make $\frac{1}{2}$ an hour before I go down to Chapel. Talking of the Chapel almost every one feels it is a success.

One thing seems pretty clear, that almost any thing would be admitted now in the way of adornment. The cross stands out or peeps through at every angle & every window there had two vases of flowers on the altar ~~last~~^{to} night & up at the Church the girls have made crosses between each window & even unbaffled Cowan, begins to fancy he can ~~not~~ ^{them} permit & still worship.
These little things are in advance to a certain extent, but still it is humiliating to see how little we accomplish. Surely one might expect that at this season of Advent a few would try to examine their ways & seek counsel & advice at the mouth of God's ambassadors. Among the papists there seems to be a general waking up during advent. In the city & here they are thronging daily to confession before Xmas. Possibly they may err greatly in this, but do not we err in totally neglecting it. Your sister most kindly called before she went home. She gave me quite a full account of you & how you were occupied all w^t. I was delighted to hear. I am glad you saw Prof^r Dawson. You know all I care of like Polyzoa & any thing you want I will gladly draw write or send. Prof^r Shuck's hopes to give me the name of Obul (Lara?) with such beautiful tentacles. Show it to Prof Dawson & see if he knows any thing of it.

Hoping you may live & be blessed in fulfilling all your hopes & expectations

Believe me very very affectionately yours W. A. Johnson.
