J. D. Beaman Place

New York

My dear S^r: Cushing

M^r: Miles telephoned after your letter had gone to Bay. That the first owner of the mill was John Benner, afterwards he sold out to J. W. Farwood, who was later associated with M^r: Miles brother - Lora Brook who had a hand cut of the this same mill,
I am sending the checkman

No I - L. was the Farland Dices Dices - Disto - not - The Dicy Doolen Dices

No II - Pat Johnson was supposed to have been a spy on the navy he having entered the service of the Patent body while performing the Georgia Service anyway he was never used afterwards

III - Grandfather died Jan 15 - 1880 - was buried at St Paul's Lowland Church yard Jan 17
Novis B. D. P.

III He found two letters one dated Sept-12-78- but - They were personal & had no indication of anything special except his own feeling that he and his loved ones that he could not return to Canada, he also mentioned the night he was sleeping with his dad.

IV - Grandfather lived for about five years after Grandfather

I found out today that there is a very beautiful Journal Dincollet given in remembrance of Dr. Johnson by a Dr. James Cheer one of his Parishioners at Duxton To St. Alban's Cathedral.

By this same mail. Let me know if there is anything I can do for you while here

With Love

Always Yrs

Wm. B. G.
