

ative. Jagan is very good to him. He sleeps all night, he is getting so tall & still stout he loves little Auntie (sk. I saw Brick on his way thro. I took Bob to the station the train was half an hour late little B. found so much amusement that he absolutely refused to return home, & at last I followed me like Shimei - threatening my death, to the amusement of passers by. - I am longing to see my little absentees. Billie returned <sup>from a visit to the professors at Memphis</sup> with an awful beard & whiskers, but after seeing the Medical faculty he removed it. their protestations of horror influenced him. I never saw any one so burnt. he wore Perce's Tam o' shanta all the time - also his <sup>P's</sup> flannel shirt & Jersey. - they did not dress for dinner. not even shirt collar or tie! - I am becoming too painfully popular in to live they fetch me. & a dog or name in Willie has gone off to Morris bouch like a vulture - an interesting case - he took his awful tools with him - Could the young man be expected to survive that? Baby is Riviera & is the Puppy - both destructive. Violent energy illustrated. - Percy can get a return for same terms 7-75 I gave him the wherewithal - I doubt your getting a Family ticket that way - but when you are in Toronto Percy can go for the address of the Office it might be worth while to inquire he had no sleeping berth & endured hardships in the smoking car being to retiring to claim a seat in the other crowded ones. I have lovely flowers too, I am kept supplied by the public & a young gentleman brought me a magnificent lily tonight in his pocket h<sup>f</sup> I wondered what was coming forth (Dick Perry) - I must conclude your loving sister
