

The Call to Oxford

CUS417/100.105

Lodge's account.

Prof Thompson tells me - ^{Church would not take it.} Londa was invited Sturminster, young Auckland or Sir W^m Church whereas G. Buch, Londa & he wanted wanted someone to fill in the boat & expect some in G. Buch the ~~political~~ political dept. going. ^{also favored James Ritchie, Teacher in Path.} An infers and Balfour could not decide, Munro was Vice-Chancellor Balfour wanted an immediate reply to Thompson suggests the 2.
 at this juncture Thompson refused Oler and Sir Patrick Maxwell as cordial articles of university, Balfour must have invited Londa and he to W.O, where begins Lodge's account, and Letter to O,

J. Alderson re

W.O. was going up to Ed^g to stay with Schifano & probably went to London instead to see Balfour.

(Lodge went to Ed^g)