There are many versions given suggested W.O. Prof. Thompson's version that he sent in the days of Monson etc. when been come to be an expense - but Whitwell tells a more exact story. Sordson had a relation who attended him and said something to him about W.O.'s refusal to be the 'St. Andrew's' because he did not wish to conform to the regulation of gaffing - (Whitwell was a close mate of Thompson's this) that he might come here. Sordson clipped his hand to his forehead and said that - it - the very man - et. Sordson was in in at sometime
