Dear Chadwick:-

Many thanks for the books, which I have been distributing, some to the libraries and others to the boys. They have been much appreciated. I send to the Library by express today the Vesalius. It should have gone before, but I was not able to make up my mind which copy to send, and I could get no help from Cushing. At last I decided to part with the one in the fine old cover, on which Voynich has put the date 1587, why I do not know. I was very much obliged for the Fisher monographs on Small-pox. He was a great old character.

Sincerely yours,
