Uriel College, Oxford.

11 May 1904.

Dear Sir,

The Vice Chancellor instructs me to enquire whether you are willing to resume the duties of the Regius Professorship of Medicine, which you so recently resigned, now that you have returned to Oxford.

During your absence the duties of the Chair have been carried on by Professor Thomson, but the Statute, under which he was appointed, only provided for the creation of a Deputy in the absence of the Regius Professor.

The Vice Chancellor with therefore be much obliged, if you will kindly consent to resume the routine duties of the Chair, until the appointment of your successor.

Yours faithfully,

P.S. Allen.

Ir Buladonousa Africal.
