----- We are still at it - coughing away altho until 6 pm - yesterday he had a goodish day
- I cannot help being very uneasy about it all & it seems most unnatural that Sir William does not get well. Yesterday - when I gave him a message from someone about going to the Riviera he said "I prefer to be translated to Heaven from my own bed" I wish he did not know so much about the conditions. ~~-----~~
