

The incident - which W.D. recorded in his Notes and Comments - (Can. Mus. Jour.
 June, XVI p. 377) ~~was disbelieved by his Montreal friends~~ was to the effect that a Mr. Fred. Brydges <sup>who</sup> had kindly met their party at the Portage to ~~the~~ escort them over the Manitoba and North Western Road' told a remarkable ~~old~~ story ~~which~~ of a newborn infant - which had fallen from a moving train and survived. Evidently this was disbelieved by his Montreal friends for it had an E. Y. Davis sound and in a later issue Oles replies:
