(Dr. H. V. Ogden)

The Johns Hopkins Hospital,
North Broadway. Baltimore, Jan. 5th, 1891.

Dear Ogden: -)

(Happy New Year. Many thanks for the book, which I am sure will be charming. I have read several of Henly's things with pleasure.)

(Sorry about the Senn row, but he is too big a man for the small fry about him, in Chicago. I think his book is excellent.)

¶ We are all taking the Koch's virus. The Jan. number of the bulletin will contain a detailed statement of the cases. I am afraid that in pulmonary tuberculosis we are going to be disappointed. The boys often ask after you and we expect a longer visit from you this spring. All well at Toronto.

Sincerely yours,

~~Wm. Osler.~~
