1892. Note. really Preface

My thanks are due to my former first assistant, H. A. Lafleur, for much help, direct and indirect; to his successor, W. S. Thayer, for assistance in the section on Blood Diseases and for the preparation of the illustrative charts; to D. Meredith Reese, for the statistics on tuberculosis; to H.M. Thomas, for many suggestions in the section on Nervous Diseases, and particularly in the section on Topical Diagnosis; to L. P. Powell, of the Johns Hopkins University Library, for a careful revision of the manuscript; and to Miss B. O. Humpton, for valuable aid, especially in the preparation of the index.

Johns Hopkins Hospital,
Baltimore, January 1, 1892.

The following in W.O.'s script appear on the title-page:-

Received first copy Feb. 24th, 1892.
This one - second reprint - April 16th, 1892.

Private Copy.

May all the curses of the good Bishop Emulphus light on the borrower - and not returner or upon the stealer of this book.

This is the 2nd printing, with some of the errors corrected. The 1st printing of 3,000 copies was distributed by March 17th, on which date I had notice from Appleton & Co. to send corrections for 2nd printing.
